MRS. RONALD COLEMAN

Evening Ceremony Unites Miss Luella Martin, Ensign Coleman

The marriage of Miss Luella Martin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Kincaid Martin, of Pamplin, to Ensign Ronald Marshall Coleman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Twyman Coleman, of Appomattox, took place Saturday evening at 8 o'clock in the Farmville Methodist Church, Farmville.

The Reverend Robert Withers, of Farmville, performed the double ring ceremony.

A program of nuptial music was provided by Mrs. Lloyd White, of Farmville, organist; and Mrs. Ralph Reynolds, of Appomattox, soloist.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a traditional gown of silk organza over silk taffeta designed with a sculptured bodice, intermission length sleeves and portrait neckline. Deep appliques of re-embroided Alencon lace outlined the neckline, the sleeve and bordered the apron overskirt over the full skirt, which swept into a chapel train, below the tailored bow of organza. She wore a mantilla of French silk illusion bordered in Alencon lace, and she carried a bouquet of roses, orchids, and stephanatis.

Mrs. Richard Robinson, of Appomattox was her sister's matron of honor. Miss Eloise Rosser, of Pamplin was maid of honor. They wore lonz dresses of flower pink taffeta overlaid in white cotton lace and the shaped skirt was covered in white organdy. Matching pink ribbon formed a sash with streamers. The matching headpiece was a French circulet trimmed with a bow and short veil. They carried a bouquet of pink roses. The other attendants were Miss Mary Anderson, cousin of the bride of Richmond; Miss Joan Martin, cousin of the bride; Miss Caroline Coleman, sister of the groom, both of Appomattox; Miss Sara Stone, of Kingsport, Tennessee; and Miss Patricia Sarver of Orange. Their dresses were identical to those of the honor attendants. They carried a bouquet of pink carnations.

Junior bridemaids were Miss Kathrine Coleman, sister of the groom, and Miss Mary Louise Martin, cousin of the bride, both of Appomattox. They wore floor length dresses similar in design to the other attendants and carried similar bouquests.

Susan Rosser, of Appomattox, was flower girl. She carried a basket of white rose petals. Her floor length dress of white silk organza was fashioned with a snug bodice, scoop neckline and short sleeves. A crushed girdle of dawn pink taffeta incircled the waist, ending in the back in a butterfly bow. Her headpiece was identical to the other attendants. Daniel Lee Baldwin, of Pamplin, was ring bearer.

Dan Coleman was his brother's best man. Ushers were Richard Robinson, brother-in-law of the bride, Francis Hamilton, Leon Edmunds, and Ray Wingfield, all of Appomattox; Robert Carrol, cousin of groom of Concord; and Joe Thomas, cousin of groom, of Radford.

After the ceremony the bride's parents entertained with a reception in the church social hall.

Upon their return from a northern trip, the couple will reside in Norfolk for the summer months.

The bride was graduated from Marion College and is a rising senior at East Tennessee State University. She is a member of Alpha Delta Pi Sorority.

Ensign Coleman was graduated from Lynchburg College and United States Naval School, Pensocola, Florida. He is stationed at the Naval Air Station at Oceana.
